Methodists Hold First Service In New Frankfort Church Sunday

The congregation of the Frankfort Methodist church will take possession of the new $200,000 building on Sauk Trail at Linden drive in a special ceremony Sunday, Jan. 19.

Members and friends of the church will meet in the present sanctuary at 9:30 a.m. After a brief final service in the old building the congregation will walk to the new building in a body, singing as they go. Transportation will be provided for those unable to walk. In case of inclement weather a motorcade will replace the procession on foot.

Upon arrival at the new building the congregation will gather in the sanctuary for the first service in the building. Following the service all will be invited to inspect the new premises.

The building includes a nave to seat 225, overflow seating for an additional 150, choir seating for 20, fellowship hall seating 200 at tables, kitchen, seven classrooms, church office and pastor's study.

Formal services of consecration are planned for March 2 at 2:30 p.m.

The planning committee for the January 19 ceremony includes Mr. and Mrs. Norvin Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Borms, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Burde.

Men and women of the church will prepare for moving into the new church with a general clean up Thursday, Jan. 16, at 2 p.m. The cleaning will continue Thursday evening and Friday afternoon until completed.

Moving from the present building to the new building is scheduled for Friday afternoon and evening with the hope that cleaning and moving can be completed before Saturday noon. Everyone can be of help.

VFW Commander Recounts Aid Given Veterans

Commander Clarence A. Zugenbuehler, of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 725, Mokena, in a statement appropriate to National VFW Week—Jan. 19-25—pointed out today that the VFW was the first veteran group to sponsor the annual nationwide sale of memorial poppies.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars conducted its first sale in 1922 and since then millions of the replicas of the red flower that grows so profusely in Flanders' fields have been sold under the copyrighted name of "Buddy" poppy.

The proceeds of these annual solicitations are used for rehabilitation and relief works and to help maintain the National VFW home for members' orphans and widows at Eaton Rapids, Mich. This incidentally, is the only home of its kind owned and operated by any veteran organization, Zugenbuehler said.

"By now," Commander Zugenbuehler added, "the public is well aware of the fact that every cent contributed to the Veterans of Foreign Wars 'Buddy' poppy campaign is used for the relief of needy and disabled veterans and their dependents, and to help operate the national home."

Through these and other works, Commander Zugenbuehler pointed out, "we give true exemplification to the Veterans of Foreign Wars motto: 'We honor the dead by helping the living.'"

Area Police Will Attend Meeting at Tinley Park Jan. 27

The Tinley Park, Orland Park and Palos Park police departments will play host to members of the southern division of the Illinois Police association on Jan. 27.

About 200 police officers will attend the meeting to be held at 8 p.m. in Sanger hall, Tinley Park. Refreshments will be served by the host departments.

The southern division of the Police association covers south Cook county, extending into Chicago on the north and into Will county on the south and west.

At a special meeting of the Mokena village board Tuesday night a motion was adopted to exercise the option on the proposed sewage treatment plant site and complete the purchase of property.

The site, which is located on the west side of Wolf road at approximately 190th st. is owned by Max Bottema and is five and a fraction acres in area. The price is $6,000.

Acquisition of the treatment plant site was among the details to be cleared up preparatory to beginning work on the project.

Village officials believe that everything will be in readiness soon so that work on the project can be started this spring.

Some eight miles of sewer will be laid in addition to construction of the treatment plant.

The sewer system will be so constructed that it can be extended easily to meet any future expansion of the community and the treatment plant can also be expanded.

Mokena householders have been using septic tanks but the village has outgrown that means of disposing of sanitary waste and a sewer system has become a necessity, it was pointed out.

The state has been insisting that something be done to end pollution of Hickory creek and has been pointing a finger at Mokena, Frankfort and New Lenox.

Frankfort voted down sewer bonds last year but the question is expected to be revived again there. New Lenox has had engineers draft a rough plan for a water and sewer system plus a sewage treatment plant and has obtained an estimate of cost. The complete system, according to the engineers, would run approximately $2,000,000, largely because the excavating for the mains would be done in rock. Because of the high cost bonding firms are not willing to finance it and the New Lenox project is apparently dead—at least for now.

SPEAKS ON SAFETY

Harold C. Moore, Tinley Park police chief was the guest speaker at the Kirby school PTA Tuesday night. His talk was on safety.

SOIL DISTRICT MEETING

The annual meeting of the Northern Illinois Soil Conservation district will be held at the Lockport Congregational church Saturday evening, Jan. 18, beginning with a dinner at 6:30. A good speaker and special music are promised.

The Marine Corps Band was organized in 1798 and has played for every President except George Washington.

Burglars Ransack New Lenox Home; Remove Window

A thoro job of ransacking the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sparks, 210 S. Cedar rd., New Lenox was carried out between 6:30 and 8 p.m. Monday.

Mrs. Sparks was gone from the home between this period and her husband was at work. The family dog was in the basement.

She returned to find the home had been broken into by removing a window on the north side of the garage, and breaking thru the back door between the garage, and kitchen. The door was damaged beyond repair.

Papers, contents of drawers, and clothing were strewn thru-out the house. Many of the papers were ripped and torn. Broken coffee cups were laying on the kitchen and basement floors.

The family dog appeared to be in a stunned condition, and from the evidence of the broken cups, assumption is the burglars had aimed the cups at the dog.

A wrist watch left on the kitchen drainboard by Mrs. Sparks, when she washed dishes prior to leaving, was not taken. Indications from the mess left in the wake of the burglars indicates they were searching for money. There was no indication that anything had been taken.

George Kennedy, New Lenox policeman, responded immediately to a call from Mrs. Sparks but a call to the Sheriff's office, Joliet, had no response until the following morning when an officer came to take fingerprints. The sheriff's office said it had no record of the call on the previous night.

A clear set of fingerprints was obtained and police have suspicions as to the identity of the culprits.

Recreation Club Puts 500 Limit On Membership

The organization of the New Lenox Sportsman's Recreation club has been completed, according to a spokesman for the club.

It was stated that plans for summer development are being made and it is planned to open the grounds to limited activities by April 1. The plans include recreation facilities for everyone; swimming, picnicing, camping, fishing and boating as well as other popular activities the members may desire.

The Recreation area is an 80-acre tract with four lakes in the strip mine area just south of Wilmington. All bodies of water are reported to be good fishing and one shoreline of the largest lake is readily adaptable for the construction of a beach and swimming area. There is an Oak Grove on the property which will be set aside as a picnic and camping area.

The spokesman stated that applications for memberships were coming in daily and are being processed on a first-come-first-served basis and as the membership will be limited to a total of 500, it was suggested that interested persons make application now.

Application forms or information may be obtained by addressing the New Lenox Sportsman's Club, P.O. Box 395 at New Lenox.

Bremen High Night School Classes For Adults to Open Next Monday

By EDWIN BRUELL

Want to know how to whip together those bookselves you've always wanted? Or turn out gadgets on a lathe? Or wield that power saw you've always desired?

Philip McBain will be the instructor to show you how when the evening course in woodworking holds its first session at Bremen community high school Monday, Jan. 20.

The adult classes will be held each Monday and Thursday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Bremen, 152nd st., and Crawford ave., Midlothian.

Blueprint reading, taught by Richard Zuege, is another of the courses on the six-week program, in which the grown-up Mr. Blandings may learn to plan their dream homes on paper and to get a practical working knowledge of the making of drawings. They will learn enough about the terminology of the building and metal trades to know what the contractor is talking about when he makes his imposing columns of figures.

If you are a thwarted artist with a suppressed desire to emulate Picasso, the course in art will provide a chance to learn painting or drawing under the direction of Leonard Madura, who will give training for beginners and advanced students in oil painting, water colors, charcoal, and other areas.

And Business To

In the more practical world of business, a course in office machines will be presented by Wallace Carpenter, who will give training in operating such machines as the calculator, adding machine, comptometer, duplicator, transcriber, and electric typewriter.

The everyday need for ordinary typing will be met in a course on that subject, whose purpose is to develop a usable skill in touch typing, as taught by Dolores Johnson.

If you need to know how to sew a fine seam, the course in sewing and clothing construction taught by Mrs. Dorothy Bentz is for you. She will give particular attention to individual sewing problems, teaching pattern reading, cutting, fitting and construction of garments.

Perhaps you are afflicted with that common ailment of vocal paralysis whenever you are called on to "say a few words" at a public gathering. The course in public speaking taught by Mildred Ellington is designed to meet the needs of those who "desire greater ease and facility in making speeches." This course is informal with a small group situation. A tape recorder will be used.

Adults who wish to register may consult Glenn Starnes, director of adult education at Bremen high, up to Thursday, Jan. 24.

Enrollment fee is $12 for each course.

SERENDIPITY

We've all heard much of "accident-prone" individuals—people who just keep on having one mishap after another for no discernible reason. These unfortunates are considered liabilities when it comes to doing the work of the world. But, as an article in the Journal of the American Medical Association points out, there are some "happy accident-prone" people who are pretty important. They're the researchers, scientists, and doctors who accidentally discover some big thing while looking for something else.

A classic example was when Dr. Fleming accidentally left a dish uncovered—and discovered penicillin as a result. And there are many more. Long ago, van Leeuwenhoek focused a magnifying glass on a drop of water instead of on a fly's leg as he intended—bacteria was thus discovered and the whole science of medicine revolutionized. Edward Jenner heard a former milkmaid boast that she was immune to smallpox because she had had cowpox—and cowpox became the agent for mass immunity against smallpox. A Paris physician saw children tapping messages to each other along opposite ends of a plank—and from this devised the principle of the stethoscope. A chemist, who had been working with a strange chemical, forgot to wash his hands before lunch. He wondered about the sugary taste of his beef sandwich—and the end result was saccharine.

There is a word for the ability to make some valuable or pleasant discovery without deliberately looking for it—serendipity. But luck doesn't explain the whole story by any means. The AMA article quotes a doctor as saying this: "Discoveries made by accident are never pure luck. They come about only because the men who make them are alert enough to fathom their usefulness."

Parents, Friends Of Handicapped Children to Meet

The group is being formed for the purpose of arousing public interest in the welfare of these children; to provide an educational program for parents, to secure support of appropriate State legislation and the furthering of special education.

IN FATAL CRASH—This shows the remnants of a car involved in a crash at 7 o'clock last Saturday morning on U. S. 45, about a mile and a half north of the intersection with U. S. 30 at Frankfort. A passenger in the car, Carlos Paz, 27, of Argo, was killed and the driver, Ismael Guerra, 25, of 7809 W. 65th, Bedford Park, is in St. James hospital, Chicago Heights where his condition is listed as "fairly good." State troopers who covered the accident reported that apparently the steering mechanism failed, causing the car—northbound—to leave the pavement. It ran along a ditch for about 500 feet and then overturned and rolled into a field. Both men were thrown out of the vehicle and the car ran over Guerra. Fete January Birthday Celebrants At Oak Forest

The new bright red check tablecloths, which were a Christmas gift of the American Junior Red Cross Chicago chapter, were spread yesterday, Jan. 15 for the monthly birthday party for patients of Oak Forest hospital, born in January.

The patients consider it a special treat to dine on the gift cloths being rotated for use in the main dining room and in the smaller ward dining rooms. They are credited with encouraging patients' appetites and personal appearance, according to Enid Miner, chief dietitian, Oak Forest Hospital, who is responsible for whipping up the candle topped decorated cakes for 135 celebrants.

Oak Forest hospital chief gardener Carl Olander makes up the corsages for the women and the boutonnieres for the men, presented at dinner.

The senior celebrant this month is Martha Griffin, 92, just 22 years younger than patient Sally Powell, a former slave, who will be 114 Feb. 10.

These birthday celebrations are also indicative of the care being given today at Oak Forest hospital, the Cook county hospital for the chronically ill at 159th and Cicero, it was pointed out.

TINLEY NEIGHBORHOOD

When the Girl Scout Neighborhood of Tinley Park meets Jan. 28, Mrs. Harry VerWey will preside as new chairman and Mrs. George Chodl, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. VerWey is well qualified for her new position, having been in Girl Scout work for a number of years; has completed all available outdoor activity courses and is a first aider.

In the latter capacity she accompanied a group of girls at the South Cook county camp-out, Jan. 4 and 5 at Camp Falcon which is on 143rd st. near Harlem ave. They lived in tents made bough beds with Christmas trees donated by Fredrick service station and Village Evergreen nursery, in spite of the temperature being 6 below. The girls enjoyed skiing and took movies. The requirement that a girl must have spent 6 weeks living in a tent, deterred a number of girls from attending, but those who did reported it was well worth the effort.

Mrs. VerWey is chairman of Campership and the Camp Stamp committee. Camp stamps are sold to Girl Scouts in denominations of 5c, 10c and 25c and afford a way to save toward Camp Manistee or day camp. However, should a situation arise which would prevent a girl from attending camp, the money is refunded.

There have been a number of changes in troop leadership. Mrs. Sydney Feiwell has assumed leadership of troop 97; Mrs. Charles Moore is leader of Brownie troop 460 with Mrs. Herman Schiefelbein as co-leader. Mrs. Robert Klicka is leader of the new Intermediate troop No. 587 in Kimberly Heights. Mrs. John Shaulis is working with Brownie troop 267 of which Mrs. L. J. Benson is leader.

Mrs. Don Hollingshead is in charge of organization on the service team, which has recently been set up. To date the office of consultant has not been filled. The formation of both Brownie and Intermediate troops are a must for the future as more and more girls are applying for membership in Girl Scouts.

If anyone is interested in working with girls in a very rewarding and worthwhile endeavor, she should contact the Neighborhood chairman, Mrs. VerWey, KE 2-4787. A course will be conducted in Harvey, starting Jan. 29, for anyone interested in being a consultant.

defense director, will be guest speaker at the Arbor Park PTA meeting this evening, Jan. 16. Mr. Smith will be accompanied by Larry Flood, present civil defense director of Markham.

The topic will be "Do you know how to survive an atomic attack?" The talk will deal in particular with what preparations to make in the home and action to take in an emergency.

Following the speech, Smith and Flood will conduct a question and answer session.

The meeting will be at the Arbor Park school auditorium, 160th and Forest at 8 pm. All who are interested are cordially invited.

Amvets Offer Scholarships

Four year college scholarships ranging in value from $200 to $2,000 are available from AMVETS to high school seniors whose fathers are totally disabled as a result of their military service in World War II or Korea—or who served in World War II or Korea and are now deceased.

Commander Anthony Dina of AMVETS Post 183, Mokena, explained that the AMVETS Memorial scholarships may be used for undergraduate study at any accredited college.

Application forms are available from Mr. Dina at Mokena. The deadline for candidates to submit applications to AMVETS National Headquarters in Washington, D. C., is Feb. 20, 1958. In March, a competitive college aptitude examination will be given in all high schools where there are eligible candidates for the scholarships, Commander Dina said.

The winners will be selected on the basis of financial need, high school records and results of the March examination. The amount of each scholarship will be based on the status of the winner's father, with the largest ($2,000) grants awarded to students whose fathers are totally disabled.

The 1958 scholarship program marks the seventh consecutive year that AMVETS have awarded grants to children of World War II and Korean Conflict veterans.

Commander Dina also announced that a 4 year $1,000 scholarship is available to a high school senior whose father was killed or totally disabled in the Burma campaign of World War II. This scholarship is based on a gift of the Burmese nation to assist children of American servicemen who participated in the Burma campaign. AMVETS have supplemented the gift to provide scholarships. Application procedures are the same as for the AMVETS Memorial scholarships.

Bremen Fives Rout Reavis and Rich

Victories Put Braves On Top In Southwest Loop Cage Standings

By ALEX RODGER

The Bremen Braves have passed two more hurdles in their path to the basketball championship of the Southwest Suburban conference.

League play was resumed last week-end after a lay-off since Dec. 20. Bremen polished off Reavis and Rich to give them five wins as against one defeat in conference play.

While lacking height the Braves have plenty of speed and skill and have taken full advantage of both in the cage wars this season.

The victories last week-end leave the Braves on top in the conference standings. Sandburg's Eagles triumphed over Oak Lawn last Saturday night and while they too have lost only one game they have but four league wins and so are in second place.

The Rich Rockets, who had run rough shod over the rest of the teams since the conference was organized have not been faring well this season. The Rockets have won but one game and their 69-68 loss at the hands of Bremen Saturday night was their fourth in league play.

Close Contest

The game with the Rams last Friday night went to the Braves 58-48 on a burst of scoring by Bremen in the last two minutes of play.

Bremen's frosh-soph also chalked up triumphs, 42 to 41 over Reavis and 49-41 over Rich in an overtime thriller.

Coach Bill Brown's varsity charges went to Rich Saturday night fired from its victory over the Rams, and let the conference know that they are gunning for the championship. This was Bremen's first victory over the Rockets and it was a sweet dish to taste. The two teams battled evenly thruout the contest. At half time the score was 38-all and was still knotted at the end of the third quarter, 53-53.

Rich's Patchett opened the final period with a fast basket that was matched seconds later by Tindall of Bremen. Then Phil Wagner put Rich in front, 58-55 with a bucket and a free throw. Bremen pulled up even again and so the minutes ticked away until with only 15 seconds to go Rich was leading 68 to 65. The Rockets, scenting victory, became too eager. One of them fouled Luke Smith and the latter counted both free throws to narrow the margin to 68-67.

A Merriwell Finish

Two seconds to go and the crowd, screaming and shouting, was on its feet. Roger Hug, a replacement for Bremen's DuBois who had left the game on fouls, stole the ball from a Rocket and flipped it to Rich Tindall under the basket. Tindall's arm flashed up and the ball arched over the basket's rim and down thru the webbing to end the game with the Braves winners, 69 to 68.

Phil Wagner, the Rockets brilliant center, copped scoring honors with 28 points, and his team mate, Gorman, accounted for 17. Bremen's leading scorers were Tindall, Hartwig and O'Neill with 21, 16 and 13 respectively.

Bremen's Coach Zuegge's frosh-soph squad also provided thrills in the curtain raiser against Rich. When the game ended the score was tied 41-41. Then in the overtime Bremen

L-W Grapplers Drop Matches to Porters, Rich

By DON LEHMANN

Lincoln-Way's wrestling squad once again showed its great strength in the lower weight classes and very poor strength in the upper weight classes, losing a pair of matches, 31-14 and 31-20, to Lockport and Rich respectively.

In the match at Lockport, Tiger Santerelli got the Knights off to a flying start by whipping Tom McCartney 4-2. Harry Johnson, wrestling in place of L-W's injured ace, Woody Zitter, was pinned by Kelly Crader. However, Ed represented the Zitters and won a fine 7-0 decision.

Al Grybash of Lincoln-Way returned to the victory trail, winning a decision. Co-captain Dave McGuire wrestled an aggressive Rich Ferguson, but proved too fast for Ferguson, pinning him handily in the second period. The Porters undefeated ace, Greg Brown, had a lot of trouble with Bill Zelko, but finally eked out a close, 4-2 victory. Booker Allen and Sherm Reiter scored pins to clinch the match for Lockport.

Lose Big Lead

Three consecutive pins and a decision enabled the Knights to roll up an 18-0 lead in their home match against Rich, but they just couldn't hold it. Tony Santerelli once again won, this time on a third period pin. Woody Zitter, back in action after recovering from a knee injury, pinned Larry Johnson.

Kenny Zitter followed with a pin, also. Ed won a 4-0 decision, keeping his unbeaten mark and making it a clean sweep for the Zitters. They have now won 14 of 16 this season.

The most exciting match of the afternoon came in the 145 pound division, with two unbeaten stars, Rich's Jerry Muffley and Lincoln-Way's Dave McGuire tangling. Without any lull in the action at any time, the match ended in a 1-1 draw.

went to the front. Jim Mifflin made two free throws and John Prisbella lagged in three baskets to put the game on ice. The final score was Bremen 49, Rich 41.

Tough on Fan's Hearts

The games against the Rams last Friday were hair-raisers too. In the varsity contest the teams were tied at 48-all with two minutes of playing time remaining. Gary DuBois then proceeded to tally four points on as many free throws and Tindall, Jerry O'Neill and Dale Hartwig followed up with a basket each to make the score Bremen 58 and Reavis 48 when the game ended.

Top scorer was the Ram's ace, Stancek, who tallied 19 points.

In the frosh-soph game Bill Wilke, of the Bremen squad found the hoop in the last five seconds to take the game 42-41.

Bremen's next start is in a non-conference tilt at Argo on Saturday night, Jan. 18. The frosh-soph game is scheduled to begin at 6:45. The varsity contest will begin about 8 o'clock.

Lincoln-Way Cagers Split With Oak Lawn

By FRED KEISLAR

Last Friday evening Lincoln-Way suffered their first defeat, and they hope their only defeat, of the 1958 basketball season when they were downed by the Spartans of Oak Lawn in a league tilt played at Oak Lawn. Southwest Suburban conference. The final score told the sad story with the Spartans 52 and the Knights 46.

The Knights scored 16 points in the first quarter to lead the Spartans at the close of that frame. Hopes ran high among L-W rooters that the Knights would and could out-play their worthy opponents.

At the half these hopes were not completely shattered, for the Knights were one point behind as the horn sounded.

The close of the third quarter found the Knights trailing by five points, giving the Spartans a lead which they only increased by one in the final frame of play.

The Knights gave the Spartans chances at 17 free shots in the second half and they took advantage of them, scoring 11, while L-W was allotted four and succeeded in sinking all of them. The Knights sunk more baskets than the Spartans in the entire game, but their heavy fouling helped Oak Lawn make up the deficit.

High scorers for Lincoln-Way were Lee Yunker, with 14 points and Ron Sorrell with 13. Neal McGee with 21 points, and Ron Rademacher with 19 came out on top for Oak Lawn.

L-W Frosh-Soph Win

The frosh-soph squad won their game from the Spartans by a 44-40 score.

Lincoln-Way topped Oak Lawn by one point in the first quarter but were topped by two in each of the next two frames. The third period ended with the score at Oak Lawn-Spartan the score Oak Lawn, 37; L-W, 34.

In the final frame Lincoln-Way came back and topped Oak Lawn score by seven points, holding the Spartans to three.

Again in this game, there was heavy fouling by Lincoln-Way which accounted for 18 of the Spartans' 40 points while the Knights scored ten points on charity heaves.

High scorers in this game were Bill Seavertson with 13 points for Lincoln-Way, and Don Miller, with 18 points, for Oak Lawn.

Tomorrow night, Jan. 17, the Knights will meet the Reavis Rams on the Lincoln-Way hardwood. The first game will start at 6:45 with the main event of the evening starting at approximately 8:00. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Sandburg Takes Oak Lawn 65-51 to Hold Place In League Title Race

Last Saturday night Carl Sandburg high school's basketball team defeated Oak Lawn 66-51 to continue in the title race of the Southwest Suburban conference. Both Bremen and Carl Sandburg have lost one game in conference activity to share the conference leadership, but Bremen has an edge by having won one more game. Sandburg has won four and Bremen five.

The Eagles opened up a 35-22 lead over Oak Lawn at half-time and continued to lead thruout the last half.

Little Pat Ford of Sandburg made 12 field goals in 21 attempts and seven free throws out of seven chances to lead all scorers with 31 points. Big Mark Hill added 18 points on nine field goals in 15 tries. Hill with 21 rebounds and Granninger with 15 helped Sandburg to control both backboards. Sandburg played without the services of tall Don Arnold who is lost to the squad for at least two weeks because of illness.

Carl Sandburg scored 29 field goals on 57 shots from the field to average over .500 in outcourt shooting.

Tomorrow night, Jan. 17 the Eagles will be host to Evergreen Park in the next conference activity.

In the preliminary game with Oak Lawn the Sandburg frosh-soph trounced the Acorns 58 to 24, after amassing a half time lead of 39-11. Jerry McBride and Don Arnold made 19 and 18 points respectively to lead the scorers. Arnold and Erickson lead rebounders with eight apiece as Coach Adams emptied his entire bench in the one-sided affair.

If the Eagles take the Evergreens tomorrow night, they will have tied up the standings with Bremen. Each team then would have won five conference tilts while losing one.

Should this situation arise then the game a week from tomorrow night—Jan. 24—could be deciding one for on that date. Sandburg will meet Bremen at Bremen.

The game at Bremen is expected to attract a large crowd of Sandburg rooters and tickets probably will be at a premium.

On Jan. 31 the Sandburgs will be host to Rich, another do-or-die contest.

The Methodist five notched its eight win in the Tinley Park Church Loop with a fine display of excellent foul shooting, stopping the Nazarenes 45-34. The Methodists evened an old score as the Nazarenes have administered its only defeat, 44-38.

St. George broke open a close game with the Tinley Teens and romped to a 49-29 victory and undisputed possession of second place.

The Methodists added to their lead consistently, but not spectacularly, as the build up of 21-14 half time advantage, slightly less than the margin of victory. Tide turning events occurred in the third quarter with the Methodists outscoring the 17th Streeters 8-3. The Nazarenes' final rush, led by Ron Bressi's 10 points, failed to get near.

Tom Jeffers netted 15, Ken Webster 12 and Ray Hon 10, totaled most of the Methodist score. Ron Bressi was high scorer in the game with 16 markers. Wally Eggert sparked the Tinley Teens for three quarters as it battled St. George in a closely fought contest. At this point, the end of the third period, the Catholics lead was just 27-24. Fourth round and storm of fury of the Catholic attack broke loose as Ron Gallina, outstanding Catholic point getter, threw in four baskets. When the clouds cleared the Teens had lost the final 22-5 and the game.

Monday the Methodists meet second place St. George and the Tinley Teens meet the Nazarenes, whom it has defeated for all its wins.

Meteors Lose In Taft Tourney; Franks Tonight

The Mokena Meteors, defending heavyweight champions of the Taft tourney at Lockport, began a successful defense of their title Thursday, Jan. 9 as they downed Channahon 32 to 31 in the opening round, but lost in the second round.

The Meteors were forced to play one of their best games of the season to get past the Indians and earn the right to meet Limestone in second round play Monday, Jan. 13. Mokena benefited from two outstanding performances by Ronnie Yunker with 15 points and Mark Muehler with 11. Yunker's scoring total was a result of his superb work at the efree throw line where he cashed in on 7 out of 9 attempts. Many of these were at crucial times and in the end spelled the difference between victory and defeat.

The Meteors led 11 to 10 at the quarter and 17 to 14 at the half. The score moved to 24 to 19 at the end of three quarters but Channahon came to life quickly at the start of the last period and scored two baskets to cut the margin to 24 to 23. A free throw by Yunker eased the tension slightly and one by Muehler made it 26 to 23. The lead was again one point when Saltsman of Channahon dropped in a neat two hander. Mark Muehler's basket and Breen's score for the Indians brought the count to 28 to 27. Yunker then got loose for a bucket and later contributed two free tosses to move Mokena in front 32 to 27 with less than two minutes to play.

Channahon was not dead, however, and scored two baskets to make the score 32 to 31. With 15 seconds remaining Crestwell was fouled while shooting and awarded two throws. He missed both and Yunker rebounded but was called for charging with eight seconds remaining. Again Crestwell had a chance to tie and win the game for Channahon but he was unequal to the task and the horn sounded with the Meteors in possession.

Mokena's entry in the under 85-lbs. class, or Bantam Division also came thru the first round victorious. The win was over St. Jude's of Joliet by a 29 to 12 score. Brown led Mokena with 11 points while Sayers had eight and Smith six. The win advances Mokena to the semi-finals Friday night.

The Meteors were upset by Limestone Monday night in the second round of the Taft tourney 31 to 21 and thus lost their chance to take the championship for the second successive year. The game was lost at the free throw line when Mokena could count only five out of 17 attempts while Limestone was hitting 13 out of 26. Limestone led at the quarter 5 to 4 but the Meteors spurred in the second quarter to take their only lead of the game 9 to 7. By the half however, Limestone had raced ahead to a 18 to 11 lead.

The Meteors stiffened their defense in the second half to allow their opponents only three baskets but ineffective shooting kept them from catching up. The closest the Meteors came was 20 to 15 but then Ronnie Yunker left the game on fouls and the Mokena cause was seriously hampered.

Friday Mokena returned to their home court to entertain Orland Park in a non-conference game. The Meteorites raced to an easy 30 to 8 win and the Meteors experienced little difficulty beating their opponents 28 to 15. Paul Brown led the Meteorites with 14 points. The Meteors were paced by Muehler with 14 and Yunker with 10 points.

Mokena will meet Frankfort tonight, Jan. 16, at 7:30 in the

Dogs Complete Obedience Course

Graduation exercises for dogs in the novice obedience class will be conducted Tuesday, Jan. 21 by the Regional training club in the Markham Lyons club house.

This is the climax of 12 weeks of training ending with a stronger bond between dog and master. In addition to the program there will be many demonstrations given by various dogs from the more advanced classes such as scent discrimination, retrieving a wooden dumb-bell and hurtling.

It's Kick-Off Time at Jensen's Furniture

These star-players (meaning fine items of furniture) were purchased by us to perform on our teams (our furniture departments). We have given them a fair trial (meaning priced, displayed and publicized right) but they haven't performed to our satisfaction (meaning they haven't sold). SO, team owner "Bunny" Jensen says, "Off they go!" The boss insists on players (furniture) that moves fast (sells fast.) These haven't so they're being sold at prices that will make these "bonus babies" move in a hurry. Come in now for a buy of a lifetime!

State Distributes October Sales Tax To Municipalities

City sales tax collections in November, representing the one half-cent municipal sales tax on business transactions in October, totaled $4,390,142 and after the state had taken its cut on the basis that it is the collection agency $4,112,422 was divided among 974 cities and villages that make use of the tax. By Jan. 9 the number of municipalities sharing the tax had grown to 988.

The lions share, of course, goes to Chicago, $1,861,753. Figures for distribution in the area show the following communities received the following sums for October business:

Tinley Park, $2,399; New Lenox, $1,222; Mokena, $782; Frankfort, $754; Orland Park, $751; Oak Lawn, $9,263; Evergreen Park, $20,971; Park Forest, $11,420; Blue Island, $13,395; Chicago Heights, $21,069; Harvey, $16,913; Lockport, $3,141; Midlothian, $2,321; Markham, $778; Robbins, $512; Posen, $740; Manhattan, $426 and Joliet $47,697. Joliet ranks fourth among the cities for business in October, these sales tax returns show. Only Chicago, Rockford and Peoria, in the order named, transacted more business than Joliet.

Women were not allowed to appear on the stage in Shakespeare's time.

Variation Sought For Shopping Area

A public hearing by the zoning board of appeals will be held in the Tinley Park village hall at 8 p.m. Friday, Jan. 31, for the purpose of considering a variation in the minimum yard requirements of a proposed shopping center area.

The corner lots in question are located on the south east corner of 167th st. and Oak Park ave.

This is the last legal step to be taken by owners of the property in accordance with their agreement with the village, before starting construction of a shopping center.

Public Hearing At Hazel Crest On Moline Road

A public hearing will be held in Hazel Crest village hall at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 29, at which time interested persons will be given an opportunity to be heard concerning their views on the proposed construction of the Moline road, known as Federal Interstate route 6, in Cook county.

The contemplated route of this highway is as follows:

The eastern terminus of the route is at its junction with the Tri-State toll highway in the vicinity of 169th st. The route extends in a westerly direction along 169th st. to just east of Crawford ave., thence in a southwesterly direction, crossing Cicero ave. just south of 175th st., crossing 183rd st. mid way between Ridgeland and Central aves., and crossing Ridgeland at approximately 186 street, thence in a westerly direction to the Will-Cook County line.

At Tinley Park, the road will cross over the Prosperi airport, 186th and Oak Park ave. It will run thru Will county north of Mokena and New Lenox and cross the Illinois Waterway at Joliet.

When completed, this expressway will become a part of the long range plan to connect the east and west coasts with interstate expressways. The project is being financed by federal, state, and county funds.

Lois Kieslar, age 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kieslar, Wolf road, underwent an emergency appendectomy in Silver Cross hospital Saturday evening. She is doing nicely and expects to return home this week.

Theodore J. Pethes, Jr., has accepted a research assistant-ship in psychology at the Illinois Institute of Technology in Chicago. He is also working on his master's degree in psychology.

The Mokena Book club met Jan. 8 in the home of Mrs. Phillip Lenz with 18 members and two guests present. Mrs. George Bills gave a review of Vance Packard's book, "The Hidden Persuaders." The story dealt with studies of the buying habits of the average American housewife. Mrs. Bills illustrated her talk with material from current magazines. Mrs. Joseph Ford was welcomed into the club as a new member.

Ralph Howell was taken suddenly ill while at his work Jan. 9 on a well drilling job at Glenview and suffered a collapse. He was removed to the Evanston hospital, under oxygen, where he is still confined. He hopes to be able to return to his home this weekend. A ruptured blood vessel in the upper digestive tract seems to be the cause of his illness.

Plans are being made by the Mokena PTA to hold a Valentine dance in the school gym, Friday, Feb. 14. Music will be furnished by the Teen Tones, a teen age musical group from Mokena. Committees and further details will be announced later.

Mrs. Phillip Howell, who with her son Curtis, flew to Madrid, Spain to join her husband Airman 1c, writes that her trip was good and that they arrived Dec. 24 and had a nice Christmas eve with her husband Phillip, who re-enlisted in the U. S. air force, and will be stationed in Madrid three years. He is a telephone maintenance man and instructor and enjoys his work very much.

The WSCS of the Methodist church met in the church parlors last Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Nicholas Thome as hostess. Mrs. William Bradley was in charge of the devotions and Mrs. Ralph Stellwagon presented the lesson study. Mrs. Elias Brown reported that invitations had been sent to the various churches to attend the union World Day of Prayer, Friday, Feb. 21 in the Mokena Methodist church. It was reported that the society had sent 40 Christmas cards to their members who are ill and former members who have moved from the area.

The new members of the church council of St. John's United church were installed at the morning services last Sunday. The new officers elected are W. A. Muehler, president; Warren Mancke, vice president; Lloyd Leyerle, recording secretary; William Steen, treasurer. Elders are Lloyd Leyerle, Harold Behen, Lester Christiansen and deacons are William Steen, Kenneth Sherwood and Stanley Yunker. Council members serve for three years.

The new council gave a dinner for the outgoing members last Wednesday at Theodore's restaurant.

Three children were baptized in the St. John church last Sunday by the Rev. William Riemann. They are Rose Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lorenz, Frankfort; Lydia Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Schrank, Orland Park and John Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillette of Mokena.

Civic Group to Elect Officers

The Mokena Civic association will elect officers at a meeting in the VFW hall at 8 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 21.

Members are requested to attend to lend their cooperation and support to the new officers, so that association may accomplish many worthwhile community projects.

During the past year the association was instrumental in formation of a Teen club.

The Christmas home lighting and decoration contest, the town tree, and children's gifts are sponsored annually by them.

All residents of Mokena are invited to attend the meeting for an evening of community fellowship and civic spirit.

Draws $100 Fine for Flouting Building Permit Ordinance

(CNS)—Solly Hammond, who lives on the northeast corner of State street and South Trail in Bloom township, has paid a $100 fine in county court for constructing a wood and tarpaper shack on his land and for moving a frame cottage without permits.

Litchfield City Judge Charles Fleming, sitting in county court, ordered Hammond to remove both buildings within 90 days. Hammond said he has already torn the tarpaper shack down and agreed to remove the other building within the 90-day period.

The county filed suit against Hammond Feb. 26, 1957. The suit charged that Hammond was using the frame cottage for residential purposes.

Hey! Ladies, How About a Nice Weasel Stole

By ROBERT MANN
Conservation Editor

The weasel family includes the mink, skunks, otters, badger, martens and wolverine as well as the bloodthirsty little weasel—all carnivorous furbearers having a pair of anal glands containing musky fluid which, except in the otters, badger and fisher, has a vile penetrating odor.

The pine marten or American sable, a little smaller than a house cat, is the tree-living member of the family. It dens and does much of its hunting in trees where it is a deadly enemy of squirrels and birds. On the ground it preys on marmots, chipmunks, hares, mice, grouse and reptiles. Honey, nuts and berries are eaten also. Aside from the lynx, eagles, owls and the fisher, a marten's chief enemy is man.

Because of its intense curiosity this beautiful animal is one of the easiest of all furbearers to trap and the pelt is very valuable. Its fur, exceptionally thick and soft, is a rich golden brown shading into black on the legs and bushy tail. There are large orange patches on the neck and chest. Until the white man came a few martens lived in Cook county but it is a shy wilderness creature and soon disappeared. Now they are found only in the dense coniferous forests of remote regions in Canada, Alaska and our northern states.

The fisher, called pekan by trappers—is another marten but larger—about the size of a fox—much fiercer, and spends more time on the ground. Altho it prefers swampy lowland forests and is a good swimmer, it is not as aquatic as an otter or even a mink, and fish are only incidental in its diet. The name "fisher" was probably invented to distinguish it from the pine marten. The long silky fur, varying from grayish brown to dark brown or almost black, is in great demand but this wary animal is difficult to trap and very scarce.

There are fishers in the Adirondack forests of New York, the mountainous wildernesses of our northwestern states, and across Canada from Labrador to Alaska and British Columbia, but they have never been abundant anywhere. Even 150 years ago, when fishers were seen here in Cook county and in the Appalachian mountains as far south as North Carolina, that was true.

This animal hunts, mostly at night, over a territory of several square miles. Once on the trail of a victim, it never quits and is capable of remarkable speed for short distances. On the ground it preys on snowshoe rabbits, marmots, beaver, birds and small animals; also on dead deer and fish. In the trees it preys on squirrels, raccoons, the pine marten, and porcupine. Other than a wise old wolf, a fisher is the only animal smart and quick enough to flip a porcupine over, attack the soft underbelly, and kill it without being harmed by the deadly quills.

The wolverine or caracajou, giant of the weasel family, is a powerful evil-tempered outlaw that looks like a bear and smells like a skunk. It is said to have attacked and killed deer, varibou, moose and even mountain lions. In winter it will follow a trapper's route, eat the trapped animals, hide or wreck the traps, and break into his cabin where it destroys and defiles what it cannot devour.

Almost four feet long and weighing from 25 to 35 pounds, the wolverine has a broad powerful head, thick body and short sturdy legs. Its long thick hair, dark brown except for a broad band of yellowish white along each side, is used in the far north to trim parkas because it will not accumulate frost.

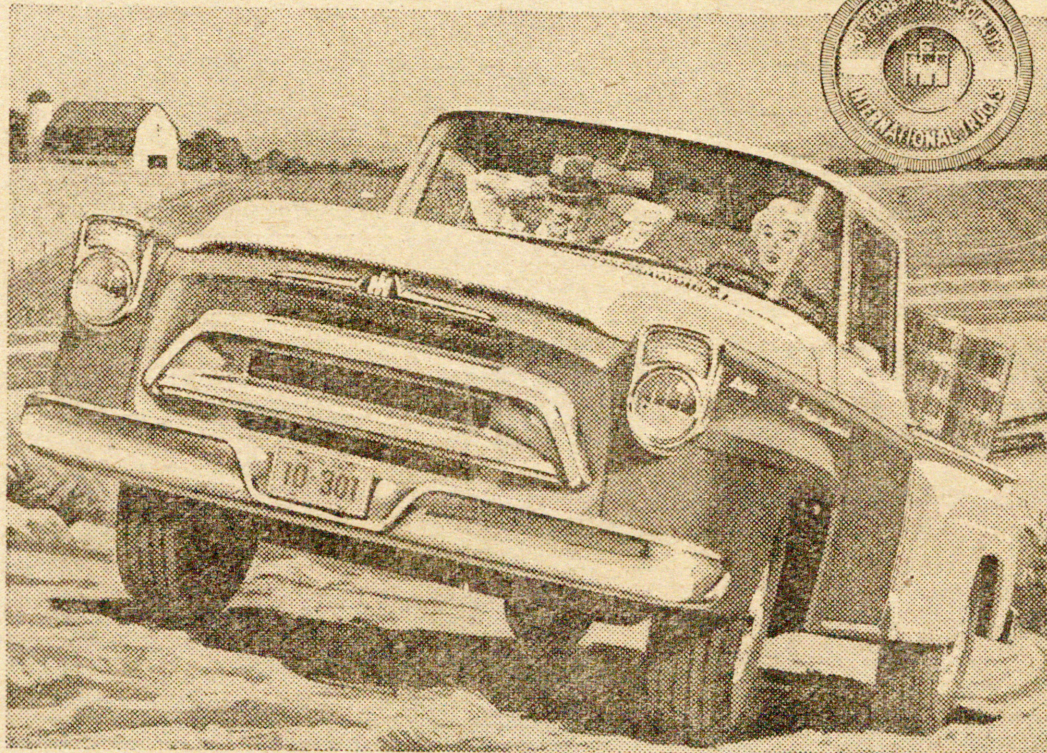

Michigan is known as the Wolverine State. Altho extinct, now, east of the Rockies, this beast once ranged from the Arctic Ocean south into our northern states. If there ever was a cunning demon, this is it.

WE'RE COMING

Three things happened this past week which prove to me how rapidly we are becoming a permanent part of our surrounding territory. You know, in general these last few months have shown an almost unbelievable rate of social growth out here, and now these three links come to bind us to those on the outside of our small village—all the farms around us and the established communities near us.

First—the new government, official, bright red and blue mail boxes on our corners! What a step forward! For over a year we, who moved in last year, have had to choose between taking the bulky envelopes into a neighboring town ourselves, or risking jamming mail in our open mailboxes for the carrier to see, or forgetting the whole thing. Some days the wind was so bad on my corner at the edge of the open field, I just let my mail wait for weekends. Then, too, there was the jolly joy of discovering at nightfall that no mail was incoming that day—hence no mail in the box was outgoing. This was quite a problem. But no more. No, now Uncle Sam has taken pity on us, our creditors, and our mailman. We have boxes, too.

The second link with the outside world was: being contacted by an energetic young man who wants very much to revolutionize the sleeping Democratic party workers out here and bring some youth and progress to Bremen township. Yes, we, too have a vote! Though who would ever guess it from our windswept location? This man, Ray Hall, is making personal calls, mind you—not just phone or mail—to get 600 names on a petition to file for nomination for Democratic committeeman. (The man who does all the dirty work of planning, running for voters, informing, etc.) We are even invited to register by Mr. Hall. (If you're Republican, step right up, of course. Registering is for all of us.) I have to admit it makes me proud to be alive when I hear of one man walking miles in country areas to get 600 names on a petition.

The third link is the national Mothers' March on Polio, which this year joins us with Tinley Park for the Jan. 30 fund night. All the women who join the one-hour march that night will be invited to meet the Tinley Park women later in the village hall at Tinley Park.

Taken separately, each of the above events seems an insignificant step, hardly worth the mention. But when you consider that each of us moves out here to a plot of raw mud, with no stores, streetlights, meeting hall, or physical social facilities visible—such links, one by one, gradually put us at ease. Day by day we are growing up and out, and within a few months, I predict, we will be a recognized and admired social core for the area spreading wide around us.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS Thursday, Jan. 16 PTA OPEN MEETING

Every adult living in district 160 is invited to attend for information on national work of the PTA, then sign an official membership list for receiving charter. Meeting is at Main school, 184th & Central, at 8 p.m. Don Swanson will conduct the first meeting, as he has organized the work of preparing for it.

A nursery will be available in a side room for all ages of babies and children brought by parents. Several teen-age girls will conduct the nursery and women from the organizing group for the PTA will assist from time to time. This should enable almost every young family out here to sign for PTA membership that night.

Any young families who cannot attend the meeting in person but wish to be listed on the first official membership, may mail their intent to join and their legal signatures to: Don Swanson, 17527 Central ave., Tinley Park.

Thursday, Jan. 16 HOME OWNERS ASS'N

Elected representatives have first business meeting and set order and plans for the year ahead. 8 p.m. at model house. (Since I am an elected member—I'll report on this to you later).

Monday, Jan. 20 CITIZENS COMMITTEE

Subjects this month may include: Spring dance for the community, vote on bonding treasurers, research on starting a newspaper and any new subjects brought up by members and considered vital to growth of our village as a whole. Open to everybody with ideas and willingness to work on them. Attend the first meeting and at second, name a sponsor (neighbor who knows you) be voted in, and pay dues of 50c a month. President is Bill Marquardsen, SY 8-5593.

Saturday, Jan. 18 TEEN-AGERS ELECTION

New club will vote on their officers for the year. Newcomers invited to join. Business meeting first, then social hour until 11 p.m. Dues: 25c a month. Meet in Main school, at 184th and Central at 8 p.m.

Wednesday, Jan. 22 CUB PACK PROGRAM

Public program by all boys' dens—with exhibitions, demonstrations, skits, and reports. A different show each month, by boys age 8 to 11. Come and see one (bring your own children—they'll especially enjoy it! I know, because my husband went for the first time last month and took our 7-year-old boy. They both had a grand and gay time.) Held in Main school at 184th and Central at 7:30 p.m. Call: Bill Watkins, at SY 8-5464.

Thursday, Jan. 30 MOTHERS' MARCH

Mrs. Rusty Wilson proudly announces her co-chairman for the fund drive is Mrs. Lillian Thomas, president of the Mothers' club at school. Fifteen women will walk to neighbors' doors that night from 7 to 8 o'clock, collecting dimes and dollars for Polio care of invalids and research support.

The Mothers' club announces this as their first big project of 1958, so remember to be cheerful when they come—and fill their jars with jangling coins (the larger, the better.)

Every Sunday CHURCH SERVICES

Country Club Hills Christian church invites everyone of varying religious backgrounds to attend 11 a.m. worship. Sunday school now fills two whole school buildings at 179th and Thomas! Bring your entire family. Even baby care is provided while adults meet for their services. Organizing pastor is J. J. VanBoskirk, ordained by the Disciples of Christ.

Saturday, Feb. 22 SWEETHEARTS DANCE

This is not the official name for it, but at first I heard it would be a Valentine dance and then they set the date for the 22nd. Temporarily, we'll call it this, anyway. The official social committee, of our Citizens committee, is making the plans for all of us to have another happy evening, as we did last winter at their Hard Times dance. They will hire a band, sell refreshments, and provide a social outing that will benefit everybody.

ELEANOR, I READ YOU

Eleanor Roosevelt, in the Sun-Times, again wrote about the Polio fund drive in her daily column. She mentioned that the March of Dimes has its 20th anniversary this year, and in that time has paid for 7,000 medical scholarships to worthy students.

Yes, one of that 7,000 was Dr. Jonas Salk. When we read how our money has actually gone out and brought, through 7,000 trials, one success, we realize the need for more funds for medical research. When Jan. 30 gives us a chance to share in the health of our country so personally, let's remember her statistic.

WHERE ARE WE?

Our voting area is called Bremen township and it covers all these local villages, and more: Tinley Park, Homewood, Hazelcrest, Midlothian, Robbins and Posen.

I remember last year when my husband and I went to vote, we had to take our station wagon miles and miles, through one community after another. But, undaunted, we persevered—and voted for every issue up that year. We do deserve our own polling place. What gods control these decisions? We'll find out later.

In the meantime, voting information can be had by calling Ray Hall, at Fulton 5-6488. He can give you driving directions, etc. for voting.

COUNTRY CLUB HILLS Cont'... DOES THIS REGISTER?

New arrivals here must register now for voting this spring. It could have been done at Homewood Acres Fire Dept.—last Saturday. You didn't?

Then go to Bremen township office, at 14400 S. Western ave., in Posen. Unless I'm mistaken, that was one of the wild drives we had to make last year, thru miles and miles of flat country and filling-station towns. Then, we ended up in a little back room, dim and woody, with shelves of yellowed papers, and a pleasant old man who chatted with his neighbors as he leisurely jotted down our addresses. It seemed an anti-climax after such a long, confusing, trip.

But don't forget: it is just such a quiet finale that men and women are dying for on the eastern side of the world. It's hard to grasp that our own neighbors turn their noses up at voting sometimes—and every hour in other lands some man's blood leaks into the soil beneath him. For what? For his own free vote.

A QUICK TRIP

It's nice to know that Mrs. Verthein was well enough to come home for a Sunday visit with her five little children last week. She returned for more medical care again, but I'm so glad they got to be with her for a while.

Can you help her husband care for her three pre-school age babies? If you have any ideas, call Mr. Verthein at SY 8-9326. There are two boys, ages six and eight, in school also. So you see, they can use some help.

DROP IT IN

Our shiny red, white, and blue mailboxes (the beauties!),

MOTHERS CLUB PLUNGES INTO 1958

The Cooper's Grove Mother's club had a most active and valuable meeting last Wednesday night. First, they had the installation of all their new officers for the year: President, Lillian Thomas; vice president, Edna Thacker; secretary, Irene Hejmalek; treasurer, Marie Younker; publicity, Betty Bergman; room mothers, Pat Hastings.

The balance of the night was spent laying basic plans for a gay FUN FAIR to be held at the end of May. This will be an open carnival for everybody in the area to attend, with booths, games, prizes, souvenirs, refreshments and everything just like a miniature carnival! Details will be announced later.

Refreshments were then served. (And were they hungry, after so much hard work.)

1958 CAR STICKERS

Fat's Halfway House, a nearby restaurant, has printed car stickers for Country Club Hills for anybody who wants them. They list his establishment's name's and address on the front, along with the name "Country Club Hills." If you would like a free one, call.

DO THEY RUN ALL OVER YOU?

If, as one neighbor who called, you resent dogs who run over your family and your property, call the police. Give them the exact tag number and description. If such reports are made, it is the duty of the police to visit the owner and enforce control or removal of such dogs. Call SY 8-3181 (My corner seems to have very well-behaved dog friends. They wouldn't dream of the discourtesies their naughty cousins are committing.)

A FAMILY AFFAIR

I have to slip in a compliment to the worthy Citizens committee here. I attended their special meeting last week, held in one of the temporary schools here in the village. The subject was strictly within the family, as the executives wished to report a decision to their membership and invite open discussion and approval.

To me it was a most gratifying hour. The calm, constructive mood of the meeting completely averted any radical wrangling, which often comes with family problems. There was unanimity in their final decision and a togetherness of mutual trust and admiration. I was happy to be present at such a meeting.

Remind your clubs to write along any personal items you wish to: Rusty Wilson, 1725 John Ave. Mail, drop in my mailbox, or call: SY 8-5669. Til next week then, MAY YOU FARE WELL.

Excessive taxation costs more than money. It strikes at the foundation of your children's future welfare, and the economic expansion by curtailing it.

Story of Early Illinois Days Told By Tools Left by the Pioneers

By JOHN W. ALLEN
(Southern Illinois University)

A dust covered grain flail was found in the feedway of a southern Illinois barn where the farmer it had hung for more than 50 years. It was left there by his grandfather who had come as small boy with pioneer parents to the farm at the edge of Loeb's Prairie in Franklin county about 1815. Rawhide thongs that bound the two sections of the flail together were stiff and brittle.

The flail would not have been so impressive had not a modern grain combine stood under a shed beside the barn. They bridged the gap from the present to that time when grain was cut with a reaphook, handful by handful, and threshed with flails.

The reaphook and flail were the principal tools of harvest for many centuries, remaining so until the introduction of the grain cradle near the mid-1700's. The cradle, often seen among old farm tools, had a queerly bent handle; a long, keen cutting blade, and a rack of slender curved wooden fingers. Those who have seen the steady, swaying, rhythmical and rather graceful advance of a group of cradlers as they followed across the grain field will not soon forget the picture. Any who have heard the rasping ring of the scythe stones as the cradlers paused to whet their blades will remember the distinctive sound they made. All will remember the stooped, but hurrying workmen who followed behind to gather the grain into bundles and tie them with strands of straw.

Threshing a Bottleneck

The coming of the cradle tended to eliminate the bottleneck of grain production only to have the threshing process become another one. A primitive cylinder threshing machine was soon contrived to remedy the situation. The first of these was only a rapidly revolving section of log, often of hard-to-split sour gum, thickly set with iron teeth. It was nicknamed a "ground hog". It was powered by an ox or horse walking on a treadmill. Grain was threshed by holding the heads of the grain bundles against the whirling teeth until the grain had been beaten out and had fallen to the floor around the crude machine. With the development of these early threshers, flailing and threshing floors began to disappear.

Ingenious operators improved and increased the size of the primitive threshers. Concaves set with iron teeth were added beneath the cylinder and the straw passed between them. An inclined table and belt of slats was added to carry the straw away. A belt-driven fan was included to blow away most of the trash and chaff. Some farmers reclaimed their grain with hand-operated fans.

At about this stage farmers came to settle the Illinois Prairies. Millions of acres of fertile land offered great opportunities for growing grain. Increased industrial development and growing population created a demand for more grain. Improved transportation also helped toward its better distribution.

Cyrus McCormick, who had made his first reaper in the east, came to Illinois to develop and perfect it. Obed Hussey and others also made harvesting machinery. The prairies of Illinois provided a ready made laboratory for these men.

After some years, machines that clipped and gathered only the heads of grain for conveyance to the thresher were introduced. These machines, known as headers, were followed in turn by the modern combine. From the reaphook-flail era to that of the combine was a long and significant course represented by the two objects found at the Franklin county barn.

Work Hard Now, eh?

After grain had been threshed by flailing, trampling, or with the early "ground hog", it still was necessary to separate it from the unwanted straw, rail working. Frows, mallets and chaff and trash. In order to do this the flailed or trampled bundles of grain were lifted and loosened grain shaken from them. The straw was saved for apples, cabbage, potatoes, turpadding beneath household carpets, or to cover and protect nips and other crops "holed up" for the winter. It certainly was not wasted.

After the straw had been removed, winnowing was begun. This process generally was carried out in the doorway of a barn or at the corner of some building where a dependable breeze could be found. The mixture left on the threshing floor was swept into piles, dipped up in shallow baskets, and taken to the selected breezy spot where the ladles were held high and the contents poured slowly over the rim.

The heavier grain fell into a heap at the laborer's feet while the straw and chaff were blown away. When necessary, this process was repeated until the grain was sufficiently cleaned. If a natural breeze was not available, large fans were made of blankets and manually operated. However it was done, winnowing was a difficult and time consuming task.

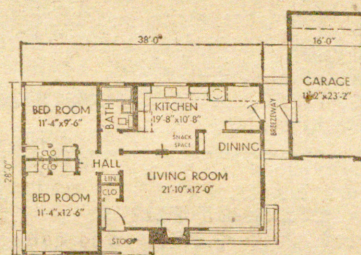

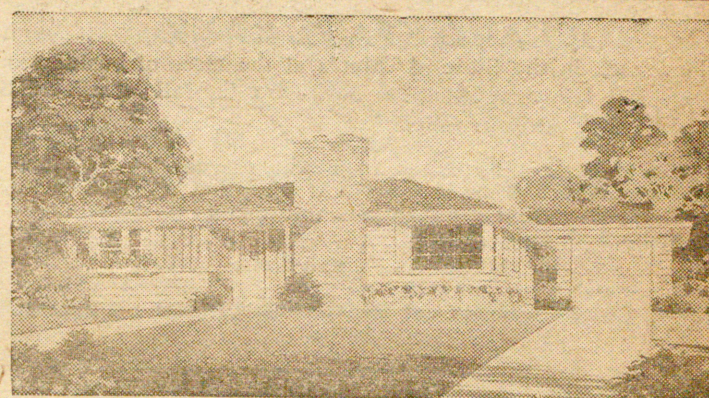

It is not the reaphooks, flails and combines alone that tell stories. Barns, basements, attics and smokehouses often yield other tools that speak to those who listen. There are mauls, wedges and gluts that tell of You're an average family if—in the postwar years you've added six new electrical appliances. Shown here are a few typical examples.

This, of course, is why you're using far more electricity nowadays than you did just a few years ago. And why life is a lot easier and more comfortable. But the surprising thing is, that of all the things you buy today, electricity has gone up less than almost anything else.

So, while your bill may be a little higher, electricity is actually doing nearly twice as much work for the money now as it did years ago.

See how little it costs to run each of these electric helpers.

a—Your refrigerator—3¢ a day. Keeps foods fresh as well as frozen.

b—An electric range—7¢ a day. (That's all it costs to cook 3 complete meals for an average family.)

c—Waste disposer—only 1¢ a week. Ends garbage smell and nuisance for good.

d—Automatic dishwasher—1 1/4¢ a load. Washes and dries dishes sparkling clean.

e—Electric mixer—for just 2¢ it will whip up 12 cakes and frosting, too.

f—An electric clock—1¢ a week. Keeps time accurately and inexpensively.

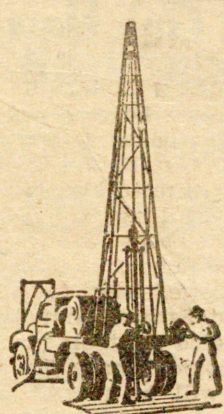

Other appliances shown include: (g) exhaust fan—blows away heat and cooking odors for 1/6¢ an hour, (h) electric coffee-maker—1/4¢ for 8 cups of delicious coffee, (i) undercounter electric water heater—brings you 2 1/2 gallons of steaming hot water for a penny, (j) ceiling fixture (150 watts)—gives good working light for 3 hours for just a penny, (k) automatic toaster—18 slices for 1¢, (l) electric fry pan—breakfast for a week (for a family of 4) for only 1¢, (m) vacuum cleaner—cleans for a whole hour for just 1¢.

"Electricity costs less today, you know than it did 25 years ago!"

CROP Will Aid Quake Victims; Shipping Food

Canned beef and corn oil from Illinois CROP will be shipped immediately to Algeria and Turkey, it was announced by Elvin D. Frantz, Illinois CROP director. This food will be used by Church World Service among recent flood and earthquake victims.

Mr. Frantz also stated that CROP contributions for this year in Illinois have exceeded $100,000 and more is expected. Included are sixteen cars of corn shipped to the A. E. Staley plant at Decatur for conversion into corn oil. These cars of corn were shipped from Carroll, DeKalb, Henderson, JoDaviess, LaSalle, Lee, McLean, Ogle, Stephenson, Will and Whiteside counties. Will county shipped two cars of corn plus $800. Other county CROP shipments included a load of 119 hogs from Mercer county and a plane load of breeding lambs from McDonough and Madison counties. The hogs were sent to the Wilson and Company packing plant at Cedar Rapids, Ia., and are being traded for canned beef. Five-thousand pounds of this beef is being shipped immediately to Algeria and 7,000 pounds will be used among the Hungarian refugees still in Austria. The sheep are being used to improve livestock in Ecuador.

Another shipment of CROP this year which has attracted widespread interest is the combine which was sent from the East Moline John Deere Plant to Greece to be used under church supervision among refugee farmers. A shipment of dairy heifers from Pana, also a highlight, is being distributed to refugee farmers in Austria. Some hybrid seed corn has also been shipped. Large amounts of CROP funds will be used to ship free government surplus food in which each dollar distributes more than two hundred pounds.

Mr. Frantz sums up the CROP program by saying that this is the best year since 1950 for commodity shipments. Because of lower corn prices, the results will not show up dollar-wise as much as might be expected, but the amount of good that will be accomplished is tremendous.

PTA News

PARENTS WORK SHOP

To build good family relations, parents require self understanding as well as insight into the needs of children, according to the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Because PTA is dedicated to the education of adults to meet the needs of children, District 19, ICPT, has arranged for a Parent Education Workshop to be held January 21, at the Evergreen Park high school, 9900 S. Kedzie, at 7:30 pm.

Dr. Evelyn Mills Duvall will direct the program, Eight Stages of the "Family Life Cycle." Dr. Duvall is past director of NCPT Adolescent Study Course and currently is writing the adolescent articles in the National Parent Teacher magazine. She will be assisted by Mrs. Anthony Blasi, district Parent Education assistant.

Mrs. Fred T. Millward, director, district 19, extends a cordial invitation to all PTA members, teachers, principals and superintendents to attend this meeting.

Sc. League of women 1-14

The Tinley Park League of Women Voters will hold two unit meetings next week. Monday, Jan. 20, the meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Garland Deinert, 16800 Forest View dr. The second meeting, Thursday, Jan. 23, will be held in the home of Mrs. Voris Miller, 17539 So. 65th ave.

Both groups will discuss "Evaluation of School Finance."

Bible Church To Show Film Sunday Night

A new church in Tinley Park established in September of last year, was inadvertently omitted in a story last week, listing other churches. This is the Community Bible church, which officially launched its first service on Oct. 6, in their present building at 17251 Oak Park ave.

The incorporated church is a member of the Independent Fundamental churches of America, an organization comprised of over 600 independent churches and over 1200 missionaries and full time workers.

"Mid Century Martyrs," a full-color, documentary film-strip will be shown in the church next Sunday evening at 7:30 according to an announcement made this week by the pastor, the Rev. Paul Eldridge.

Just two years ago, on Jan. 9, 1956, the world was shocked to learn of the five missionaries who had given their lives while trying to establish a mission station among the savage tribes of the Auca Indians in Ecuador, South America.

After some friendly gestures towards the natives, the missionaries settled down on the beach in hopes of meeting the savages and begin working among their tribes.

When radio communications were cut off, search planes circled the area and five bodies were sighted. They were killed by the natives they had come to help.

There is no admission charge and the public is cordially invited to attend this challenging movie.

FARM NEWS

For Cook County
by
W. F.
Whiteside

assistant farm adviser

Ins. Farm news stand whfST
The Agronomy Day program held last week was quite successful. About 60 farmers heard three college of agriculture agronomists relate new research results.

Here are a few highlights of what they had to say:

With favorable (for the corn borers, not the farmer) weather, corn borers could be a threat to corn next year. The tassel ratio is still the best method for determining time of treatment.

Chinch bug and spittlebug overwintering populations are small. Barring something unforeseen, these pests should give little trouble next year.

Dairymen should not use spray other than repellent types on their cattle. Residual sprays such as malathion and diatinoxon may be used in barns but must not come in contact with dairy feeds, milk, or the cattle themselves.

Clintland, Newton and Fayette (for those who wish early oats) are the recommended oat varieties for Cook county this year. Minhafer, which did well in our variety trial on the Owen Maue farm, is also an excellent variety, but seed supplies are limited. Other varieties on the recommended list are Clarion, Nemaha, Sauk and Waubey. At the variety trial held last summer, Clintland was the high yielder, followed by Minhafer, Newton and Nemaha.

Plant certified seed and treat with Cersan or panogen. These treatments have given a 3-5 bu.
yield increase.

Good farming practices are still the best weed control practices. If they have gotten ahead of you, chemical control is in order. Amino triazole is your best weapon against Canada Thistle, Randox for pre-emergence annual grass control in corn and soybeans, and downon for quack grass. For further details drop in at the office and ask for circular 771 "Chemical Control of Weeds and Brush."

You can prune your apple trees any time after Feb. 15, when the temperature is above freezing. Take out all old dead wood, broken and weak branches, blighted twigs and bark.
This helps keep diseases in check and should give you larger fruit of a better color.

Dairymen interested in expanded and improved markets for milk can hear this topic discussed by specialists at a dairy marketing day, Jan. 28 on the University of Illinois campus. The meeting starts at 9:00 a.m. in 135 Animal Sciences Laboratory.

Corn is cheap in relation to the prices of hogs and cattle.
Corn prices are also roughly 15 to 20 cents a bushel lower than they were a year ago, even though the total supply of corn is about the same as last year.
Two factors mainly account for the pressure on prices: Price-support levels are 10 and 15 cents lower than last year; and much corn, especially in Iowa and Nebraska, is too wet to qualify for price support loans.
Producers' needs for money will bring many sales during the next few months.

Dime Novel Gets Place in Sun at Chicago Exhibit

(CNS)—Chicago as the locale of early "dime novels" is recalled in a nostalgic exhibit of paper-bound romances and adventures at the Chicago Historical Society's January "Feature of the Month", this slice of Americana traces the history of the dime novel back to its origin in 1880. By 1869 the first color was used on the covers and by the 1880's the dime novel reached its sensational hey-day.

Displayed in the ground floor lobby at the Chicago Historical Society are brightly covered novels whose titles include such classics as "Dick Dashaway; or, a Dakota Boy in Chicago;"
"From a Cent to a Fortune;" or,
a Chicago Boy's Great Scoop;"
"Jesse James in Chicago; or the Bandit King's Bold Play;" "Nick Carter in Chicago; or The Crime of the Lake City;" and "Frank Merriwell's Speed; or, Breaking the Chicago Colts."

From 1860 to the early 1900's, dime novels changed from romances of love and war, tales of adventure in the wild west and on the high seas with heroes of sterling and moral character, to luric stories of violence crime and sudden death.

The novels on display, almost all with a Chicago setting, are the Joseph T. Ryerson collection in the Society's library.

Winter Is Good Time to Tidy Up Tree Landscape

Winter is just as good as spring for tidying up the home tree landscape. It may even be better from the owners' viewpoint because it spells prompt professional service and is easier on the pocketbook.

Reasons are multiple. For one thing, it is easier to remove dead, dying, dangerous or infected trees unencumbered with heavy foliage. For another, pruning is faster and logs, branches and trees are disposed of more easily. And tree men can spot tree structural defects that may be more difficult to find when greenery is in full leaf.

L. I. Cobb, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co., says removal of trees also is simplified since damage to flower beds and grounds can be kept to a minimum. Extensive wood lots can be thinned and pruned better, too, since clearing operations can be carried on with better visibility and little damage to foliar effects.

Winter pruning has not gained the momentum it should because of the popular misconception such operations are suitable only during the growing season. Actually most deciduous trees respond as well to pruning now as during any other season, it is said.

A good deal of the growing recognition of the effectiveness of winter tree work is traceable to the tree trimming activities of crews working for utility companies supplying telephone and electrical services. Pruning to keep trees away from wires

at North avenue and Clark street is open to the public on weekdays from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and on Sundays from 12:30 p.m. to 5:20 p.m. All visiting days are free to adults except Sunday and certain holidays when the charge is 25 cents.
Children are always admitted without charge.

and to insure uninterrupted electrical and phone service goes the year.

Cold Weather Tips on Autos

Here are some cold weather tips from the Chicago Motor Club:

If the door lock of your car freezes, it often can be thawed out by blowing through a rolled newspaper or straw placed close to the keyhole. If this doesn't work, heat the key with a match and then insert it into the keyhole.

In an extreme case, run a length of hose from the exhaust pipe of a car whose engine is idling. Heat from the exhaust usually will melt whatever ice has been formed.

When you park, don't set the emergency brake—it may freeze. And don't park in water—your tires may become frozen fast to the pavement.

Make certain your battery is in good condition and fully charged.

Have the anti-freeze in your radiator checked frequently.

Don't pump the gas pedal when starting. This may flood the carburetor.

But if you do flood it, wait a few minutes and try again. With a manual choke, pull the control lever out about one-fourth of the way, but don't pump the gas pedal.

The motor club advises against having your car pushed, if it has an automatic transmission; pushing may cause mechanical damage. If the transmission is manual, there's less chance of damage. Depress the clutch, put the shift in second gear, turn on the ignition, and let the clutch out gently after the push has given you starting speed.

Above all, the club says to have your battery and anti-freeze checked frequently, make sure you have winter oil in your engine, watch out for slippery spots on streets and highways, and never drive with car windows tightly closed. By keeping at least one window open, you'll avoid the danger of carbon monoxide, the motorist's deadly enemy.

Aliens Have 14 Days Left For Registration

Robert H. Robinson, district director, of the Immigration and Naturalization Service advised today that the annual alien address report program is again under way.

According to Mr. Robinson, 184,940 aliens reported their addresses last year in Illinois. The number this year is expected to be slightly larger. Mr. Robinson attributes this anticipated increase to the refugee program.

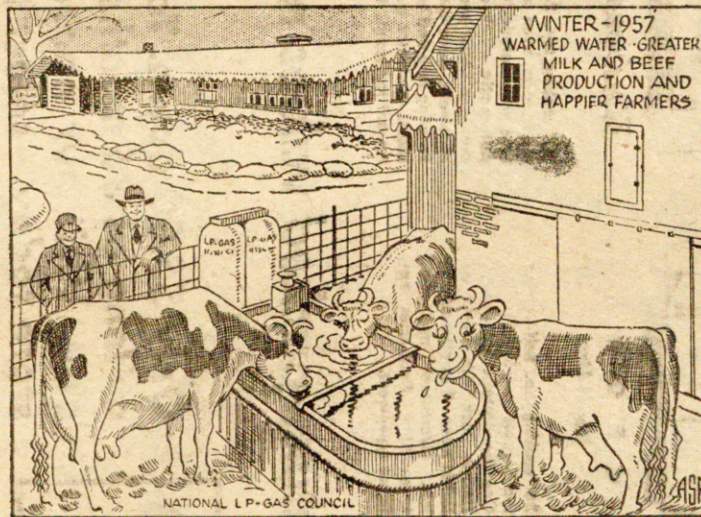

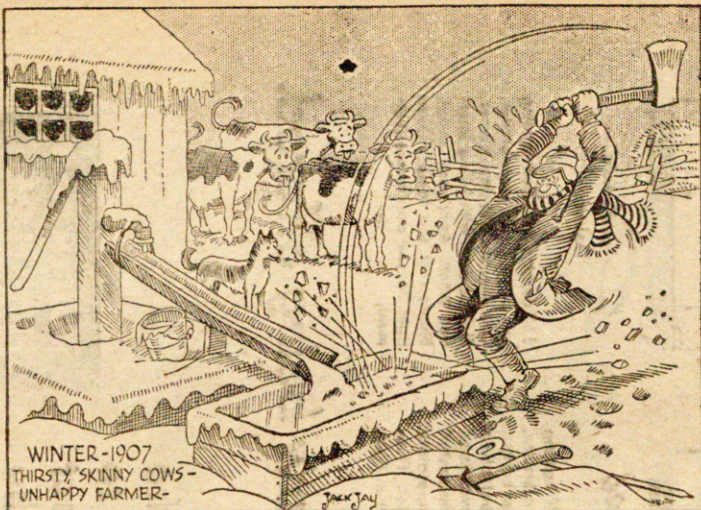

The immigration official pointed out that the address reports are required by law and willful failure to comply with these requirements may lead to serious consequences.

Forms with which to make the reports are available at all post offices and immigration offices. It is an easy matter to fill out one of the cards and return it to the same office.

Mr. Robinson added that trained personnel will be on hand in all immigration offices to answer any questions the reporting aliens may have regarding immigration and naturalization matters. Sufficient trained personnel are not available to furnish this service in all post offices.

The number of psychiatrists practicing in the U. S. jumped 57 per cent in the years 1950 to 1956.

THE CHANGING SCENE

Gladys Erickson's Fleur-de-lis Collection On Exhibit at Library

A collection of silver, jewelry, linens, clothing, china and glassware, all decorated with the fleur-de-lis, can be seen in the Chicago public library, Randolph st. and Michigan ave., beginning January 3. Mrs. Gladys Erickson, Chicago newspaper woman and author of "Warden Ragen of Joliet" is the owner of the collection. She is formerly of Joliet.

Mrs. Erickson's collection had its beginnings in 1942 when her brother-in-law "Eric", a nationally-known fashion artist, presented her with a fleur-de-lis clip and matching earrings.

Curiosity about the symbol that is generally regarded as French led her to research and finally to collecting many different kinds of articles bearing this ancient device of royalty.

The symbolic flower, which is generally called fleur-de-lis, had its real beginnings in ancient Egypt. Among the Egyptians, as well as the Assyrians and Persians, it was a symbol of fecundity and royalty. It passed on to Byzantium and then to the Teutonic countries bordering the East. Almost simultaneously, it appeared among the Venetians, the Lombards, the Spaniards and the French as ornamentation on sceptres and crowns. The fleur-de-lis was first definitely connected with France as emblematic of the monarchy by an "ordonnance" of Louis le Jeune in 1147.

The fleur-de-lis collection lent by Mrs. Erickson can be seen in the Chicago public library during the month of January from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday thru Friday; Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

National Container Spends $500,000 for River Plant Site

(CNS)—Water front property on the Calumet river, north of 138th street, has been purchased by the National Container corporation for $500,000.

The sale of the land, totaling 36.4 acres, by the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad company has been approved by the Illinois Commerce Commission.

National Container Corporation's Multiwall Bag division, an affiliate of the Owens-Illinois Glass company, will erect a corrugated paper container plant on the site. The new building will contain 300,000 square feet of floor area.

Claims Election Boosting School Tax Was Illegal

(CNS) Increased spending programs for Homewood-Flossmoor Community High School District 233, approved by voters in three special elections in 1957, have been challenged as illegal in Cook County Superior Court by Lawrence H. Carr, a resident of the district.

Carr seeks a declaratory judgment to invalidate the elections held on July 20, Aug. 3 and August 17 of last year, contending officials neglected to follow regulations contained in a new state law that amended the school code.

The amended code, the suit noted, requires voters to sign affidavits giving their name and address, also stating that the voter lives within the particular district, and that he or she is a qualified voter.

This wasn't done at any of the elections, according to the lawsuit filed for Carr by Attorney Henry W. Lehmann.

The school district is authorized by law to levy an annual tax for educational purposes not to exceed .65 per cent of the taxable property in the district and for building purposes not to exceed .1875 per cent, according to the suit.

It reported the elections purported to change this as voters: On July 20 voted 776 to 221 to increase the educational rate by .86 per cent favored increasing the building rate to .25 per cent by a vote of 779 to 219.

On August 3, voted 745 to 186 to boost the educational rate from .86 per cent to 1.07 per cent.

On August 17, voted 754 to 186 to hike the educational rate again, this time to 1.25 per cent.

WTTW-TV Offers Beginners' Course In Study of German

Touristendeutsch, W T T W, Channel 11's popular series of German language lessons for beginners, will be repeated on the educational station from 7:30-8 p.m., Monday, Wednesday and Friday beginning tomorrow Jan. 17.

The series, of 13 programs, filmed at WTTW in 1956, features Dr. Frederick Schwartz, a member of the faculty of Iowa State college.

In addition to conversational language instruction, the programs cover some of the cultural and geographic aspects of Germany—serving as an aid to prospective travelers.

Language has been one of WTTW's most popular subjects, according to Dr. John W. Taylor the station's executive director. An earlier series with Dr. Schwartz, Eins Zwei Drei, was the first good indication of a large audience watching Channel 11, he pointed out.

Read Acts 26:12-20.

I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in which I will appear unto thee. (Acts 26:16.)

One morning at 1:15 we were awakening by a knocking at the door. A neighbor was ill and needed help urgently. We went to his house and found him so seriously ill that we took him to the hospital.

After he had recovered from his illness, I asked him what he would have done if we had not heard the call for help. He said the call would have continued until we did hear.

This was a most favorable moment, and I said to him: "The Lord Jesus is knocking insistently at your heart right now. He wants to make you His disciple and to heal you of your sins. Why don't you listen to Him, at least once?"

After pondering my words, he gladly accepted the call of Christ.

PRAYER

Loving Father, in Thy great mercy Thou dost grant us opportunity to become Thy disciples. Makes us truly Thy disciples, if not family and comfort hold us back. We ask in the name of our Master and Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

How spiritual understanding of God, divine Life, increases happiness and longevity will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday, Jan. 19.

Readings from the Bible in the Lesson-Sermon on "Life" will include the following (Proverbs 3:13,16): "Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding . . . Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (487:27): "The understanding that Life is God, Spirit, lengthens our day by strengthening our trust in the deathless reality of Life, its almightiness and immortality."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (27:1): "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?"

Tinley Student Attends Wesley Conference

Lucille Brandau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brandau, a junior at northern Illinois college, DeKalb, recently attended the sixth quadrennial conference of the national Methodist student movement held in Lawrence, Kansas at Kansas University.

She was one of 3200 delegates from Wesley Foundations thru the United States.

The delegates had many opportunities to meet great personalities such as Dr. Harold Bosley, well known church leader of the First Methodist church of Evanston; Dr. Norman Cousins, editor of the Saturday Review; Dr. George Buttrick, general editor of the "Interpreters Bible" and Dr. Edmund Perry who is author of the controversial study book, "Confessing the Gospels."

Opportunities were offered for World Christian vocations, summer service projects, and there were discussions and decisions concerning vital issues of our times, such as the arms race and nuclear testing.

Miss Brandau found the conference very challenging and stimulating. She has been an active member of the DeKalb Wesley Foundation since her freshman year.

Business and Finance

MAURICE P. ANGLAND

Most financial news now show general agreement that this country must spend whatever sums are necessary to bring our military establishment to the point where we are not in danger of being overwhelmed by a superior military situation in Russia. This alone inevitably means that we are likely to have a greater rate of depreciation in the purchasing power of the dollar. In addition there is the matter of the "white hot" cold war of economics.

We have spent billions in aid to European countries as well as the smaller countries of Asia and the Middle East, in order to keep these countries out of the Communist orbit. A great many millions of people live on the edge of starvation and are impressed almost entirely by power which is currently at hand and with little regard to speculation on who will or will not have that power at a later date.

The major nations of the world (aside from West Germany) are in financial difficulties. Democratic nations allowing their citizens secret elections, find it difficult at times to compete against promises of dictatorships which can take desired moves without regard to whether their people do or do not understand what and why certain economic moves are made.

We must aid these major countries for our own protection. The major countries of Europe are short of foreign exchange and have been slowing down in purchase of raw materials. Under developed countries are largely raw material producers. Slowing down of such raw material purchases is pinching the very small countries we have tried to aid in building their standards of living thru industrialization.

Russia has moved in fast with offers to buy their raw materials and give manufactured products in exchange. Whether Russia has the industrial capacity to deliver on promises, is something to watch for at a future date. However, many serious people in the government do not feel we should dare the risk of success by the Russians in this area also. The penalty for a wrong guess would be too great.

Leaders of Russia now state plainly they are fighting the United States on an economic basis and world wide scale. They can do this without internal political risks. Democracies find it hard to compete on this basis as moves that should be made are politically unpopular at the time.

The Wall Street Journal of Jan. 9, 1958 carries a front page article discussing two problems presented by the military, foreign aid, and other likely expenditures of the near future. Among the problems for long range consideration are considerable inflation with losses in trusts and fixed dollar obligations, higher taxation, difficulty in selling government bonds and possibility of forced loans to the government and controls on prices and wages.

Most economists express a belief that with cautious handling, a very considerable expansion in defense expenditures can be had without great damage to the economy. The fear budget handlers may not be adept enough to avoid all pitfalls.

Well selected common stocks would seem to continue to be the best vehicle for protection of purchasing power of savings.

Everyone extends their sympathy to William Murphy and his family. Mr. Murphy's mother who resided in Detroit, Mich. passed away the week after Christmas, at the age of 83.

James Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leeland Hall, had an accident Jan. 7 in his home work shop. He was using the electric saw which slipped and cut his finger. His mother gave him first aid and his father rushed him to Dr. O'Reilly's office in Palos Heights. Eight stitches were required to close the wound.

John Arnold, who has been confined to his bed is improving and feeling much better. James Hall and John Arnold are star players on Carl Sandburgs basketball team.

The Laguna Woods board of directors held their January meeting at the home of Mr. Anderson Jan. 7 at 8:00 pm.

Mr. and Mrs. Mose Hegyi entertained 18 children at a birth day party in their home last Thursday evening. The youngsters who celebrated their birth days were their twin daughters Carol and Karen Von See and their brother Mark.

Cong. Mason Urges Break For Long-Suffering U. S. Taxpayers

By CONGRESSMAN N. M. MASON

(From Congressional Record of Jan. 8, 1958)

Mr. Mason: Mr. Speaker, the United States has a population of 172 million people, a yearly federal tax load of $73 billion and a federal debt of $274 billion. This makes an average yearly federal tax load for every man, woman, and child in the United States of $424 and an average debt load of $1,587.00 per person.

The whole of Europe (leaving out Russia) has a population of 411 million, a total yearly tax load of $47 billion, and a total debt load of $117 billion. This makes an average yearly tax load for every man, woman, and child in Europe of $114.00 and an average debt load of $285.00 per person.

Europe's total tax load of $47 billion is less than 2/3 of our $73 billion tax load, and her total debt load of $117 billion is less than 1/2 of our total debt of $274 billion; yet we continue to hand out billions each year to Europe in so-called foreign aid. Is it not past time to give our taxpayers a break?

Generous to Europe

During the past 10 years congress have given away to our so-called allies over $45 billion in foreign aid. If this immense amount had been spent in the building up our own national defense the United States could have been made absolutely impregnable—not even Russia would dare to look cross at us.

Mr. Speaker, today most European countries have balanced budgets. England, France, and Western Germany have balanced budgets. Our European neighbors produce more goods of every kind than they produced in pre-war days. They do it because of the rebuilt factories and modern machinery we have furnished them at the expense of the American taxpayer.

Today Europe has a $14 billion favorable balance of trade—a greater dollar balance to buy American goods with than she has ever had in her entire history. (Mr. Dulles, under questioning before the Ways and Means Committee, acknowledged this fact.) Yet we continue to pour out foreign aid—American taxpayers' dollars—to further bolster the economy of European nations. Every dollar of foreign aid we provide, whether economic or military aid, is a dollar less for European taxpayer to pay.

Alias Santa Claus

American foreign aid today is being used to balance European budgets, to reduce European taxes, and to reduce European national debts. Does this make sense? Foreign aid today is a fraud. It should be cut off entirely.

Congress should do 2 things: (1) Adopt the Hoover recommendations and thereby save yearly some five or six billion dollars, and

(2) Stop giving away four to five billion dollars each year in foreign aid.

Mr. Speaker, we would then save $10 billion each year which could mean a $5 billion tax cut; a $3 billion payment upon the national debt; and in addition have $2 billion extra to spend for real national defense, if it is needed.

Mr. Speaker, why not give our overburdened taxpayers a break and at the same time build up our own national defense?

Carpentier Explains New Car Title Law

Two different types of motor vehicle certificate of title are being issued under new provisions of the Illinois Motor Vehicle Law to give an increased measure of protection to purchasers of vehicles on which there might be existing liens. Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier said today.

The new provisions of the law became effective Jan. 1, he pointed out. They require that any and all existing liens be shown on the application for a certificate of title and also that they be shown on the title itself.

"Ordinary" and "Distinctive" An "ordinary" certificate of title is issued when an Illinois title is surrendered with the application; when a manufacturer's certificate of origin is surrendered, or when the proof of ownership submitted is from a state which requires that liens be shown on its certificate of title, Secretary Carpentier explained.

A "distinctive" certificate of title, bearing the wording, "This vehicle may be subject to an undisclosed lien," is issued when the proof of ownership submitted originated in another state whose law does not require that liens be shown on the certificate of title, Mr. Carpentier said.

Size is Changed

If no notice of a security interest is received by the Secretary of State's office within four months from the issuance of the distinctive title, an ordinary title will be substituted upon application and payment of the proper fee, Secretary Carpentier said.

Another innovation is in the size of the certificate of title, which has been standardized to conform with the size of application blanks and the manufacturer's certificate of origin, Mr. Carpentier said.

Lilies to Bloom In Time for Easter at Oak Forest Hosp.

The greenhouse at Oak Forest hospital, the Cook county hospital for the chronically ill, at 159th and Cicero, is a harbinger of spring. Chief Gardener Carl Olander last week planted 1000 lily bulbs which will bloom Easter week for distribution to wards, the patients' dining rooms, clinical facilities, and chapels.

Five hundred hyacinth and jonquil bulbs have also been planted for spring distribution. Red and yellow canna tubers will be planted this week so they will be ready to blossom in the 24 flower beds set on the hospital grounds by Memorial day.

Because fresh flowers add much enjoyment to the long term patients' convalescence at Oak Forest hospital they are panted on a timetable which provides for seasonal changes thruout the year.
